

Every Day Counts.....

Flimby Primary School is committed to providing all children with the best start in life and works hard to ensure that all children attend school regularly.

Reducing absence from school is a key priority both for school and the Government. The majority of parents do ensure that their children attend school regularly.

School Attendance

Information for Parents

Tackling Absence:

- Increases children and young people's opportunities;
- Increases children's attainment and achievement;
- Makes children safer;
- Reduces anti-social behaviour;
- Reduces the risk of children becoming involved in crime;
- Reduces the risk of children getting involved in alcohol and substance misuse;

Why does attendance matter?

Attending School on a regular basis is the key to your child doing well at school and will set them up with good routines for later life and the working world, as well as giving your child the opportunity to:

- Make lots of friends and feel included;
- Learn new things and develop many skills;
- Increase confidence and self esteem;
- Improve social skills;
- Achieve potential and fulfil aspirations.

90% Attendance

Peter is a child who attends school for 90% of the time. His parents think this is quite good. Peter is absent from school for the equivalent of one half day a week.

Mon	Tue	Wed	Thur	Fri

Over a whole school year Peter would miss four weeks (20 days) of lessons. Bearing in mind that children only attend school for 190 days each year, 4 weeks of absence would mean Peter spent more time away from school over the year than in school!

Days in a Year	Days spent in school	Days spent out of school
365	170	194

If Peter's attendance for his whole time at school was 90% he would have missed 209 days of school, that's a whole school year!

N.B. When "Parent" is referred to in this leaflet, we are referring to Parents and Carers.

When your child is absent

By law, schools must record absences and the reasons given.

Only the Headteacher can officially authorise an absence, but unless there is a concern, the staff will usually do this on his/her behalf. Parents should provide reasons for absences and the school must decide whether or not they justify authorisation according to Government Guidelines.

Authorised Absences:

- Genuine illness of the pupil;
- Hospital/dental appointment for the pupil;
- Death of a near relative;
- Religious observance (faith of the parents / carers).

Unauthorised Absences

- A shopping trip;
- A birthday treat;
- Oversleeping due to a late night;
- Looking after other children;
- Letting the gas man in, etc.

Whenever a child is absent from school the parent should:

- Contact the school as soon as possible on the first day of absence. If no notification of absence is received, the school office will contact the parents to ascertain the reason;
- Where possible let the school know in advance of any planned absences e.g. hospital appointments;
- Where possible make medical/dental appointments out of school hours.

Term Time Holiday

Family holidays should take place during the school holiday dates. These are published a year in advance. Please be mindful that absence due to a holiday is not, and never has been a parent's entitlement.

Although holidays can be of great benefit to children and families and tend to be significantly cheaper in term time, taking a child from school in term time may be issued with a Fixed Penalty Notice. From 1st September 2013 these will be for £60 per parent per child if paid within 21 days and £120 per parent per child if paid between 22 and 28 days. Parents who fail to pay Fixed Penalty Notices may be prosecuted in court.

Arriving late to school

When a child arrives late to school it can be very disruptive to your child, the teacher and other children in the class. If your child arrives late to school they will be marked as late on the register. If your child arrives very late, the child will be marked as an "Unauthorised Late" - This is the same as an Unauthorised Absence.

Absence and the Law

As a parent you are committing an offence if you fail to make sure that your child attends regularly, even if they are missing school without your knowledge. The details of Parents with children who have unauthorised absence (including those who have taken an unauthorised holiday) will be passed to the school's Education Attendance Officer, who could consider issuing a Penalty Notice or starting legal action.
